The Company’s responses to the queries are set out below.

Unless otherwise defined, all capitalised terms used in this announcement which are not defined herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the 8 November 2021 Announcement and the 2 September 2022 Announcement.

Query 1

Please provide details of the basis of the Claims. Please also state the date of Notice disclosed in both 8 November 2021 Announcement and 2 September 2022 Announcement, as well as explain why the Notices were only received in FY2022 for transactions from FY2017 to 2018.

Company’s Response

(a) In relation to the 8 November 2021 Announcement

Between the years 2017 and 2018, the Subsidiary had entered into various business consulting agreements with the Plaintiff, pursuant to which, it was agreed that the Plaintiff would be paid consulting service fees for any customers referred to the Subsidiary by the Plaintiff. According to the provisions of the business consulting agreement, in the event that the Subsidiary defaults in its payment of the consulting service fees to the Plaintiff, the Subsidiary is liable to pay liquidated damages at the rate of 0.05% per day on the amount outstanding and payable to the Plaintiff.

On 12 October 2021, the Subsidiary received the Notice disclosed in the 8 November 2021 Announcement, which was dated 30 September 2021.

It was alleged that the Subsidiary had failed to make full payment of the consulting service fees to the Plaintiff since April 2018, and on this basis, the Plaintiff is claiming against the Subsidiary for an aggregate sum of RMB 7,176,726.48, comprising the sum of RMB 5,247,981.27 in unpaid business consulting fees, and RMB 1,928,745.21 in liquidated damages for breach of contract (assessed up to 28 May 2021).

Following the receipt of the Notice on 12 October 2021, the Group consulted its Chinese legal advisers and, in consultation with its legal advisers, reviewed the relevant documents and evaluated the merits of the Claim, and also challenged the jurisdiction of the Shanghai Jiading District People’s Court.

On 4 November 2021, the Subsidiary received the civil ruling paper from the Shanghai Jiading District People’s Court on the transfer of the case to the Shenzhen Longgang District People’s Court.

(b) In relation to the 2 September 2022 Announcement

In 2018, the Subsidiary had entered into various intermediary services agreements with the Plaintiff, pursuant to which, it was agreed that the Plaintiff would provide certain intermediary services to the Subsidiary, including referring certain financial products offered by the Subsidiary to its users, and in consideration of the referrals, the Subsidiary would pay the Plaintiff intermediary service fees.

On 31 August 2022, the Subsidiary received the Notice disclosed in the 2 September 2022 Announcement, which was dated 29 August 2022.

It was alleged that the Subsidiary had failed to make payment of the intermediary service fees to the Plaintiff from April 2018 to May 2018, and on this basis, the Plaintiff is claiming against the Subsidiary for an aggregate sum of RMB 470,752.08, comprising the sum of RMB 403,955.26 in unpaid intermediary service fees, and RMB 66,796.82 in “capital occupation fee” (资金占用费) (assessed up to 28 May 2021).

Notwithstanding that the alleged breaches of the business consulting agreements and the intermediary services agreements took place from 2017 to 2018, the legal proceedings in respect of the two Claims were only commenced by the Plaintiff in 2021 and 2022 respectively. The reasons for the delay are not known to the Subsidiary. However, there were a number of changes to the Plaintiff’s controlling shareholders since May 2019.

(b) In relation to the 2 September 2022 Announcement
